Thursday's Notes

PARENT CONFERENCE NIGHT

On January 19th from 3:00-6:00, teachers will hold conferences with parents concerning students' achievement. Letters with appointment times are being sent home this week requesting parents to come in to meet to discuss ways to support your students at home. Assessments, grades, and grade level expectations will be discussed. Our goal at Nolan is to work with parents to find ways to assure the success of our students.

If you receive a letter in regards to scheduling a conference, please respond to it promptly to inform the teacher whether or not it will be a good date and time to meet. If not other arrangements can be made.
