Thursday's Notes

500,000 Minute Read-A-Thon

The students of Love T. Nolan are currently participating in a read-a-thon, with a goal to read at least 500,000 reading minutes by early February. Please help us in reaching this goal by making sure your child is reading at home for at least 20 minutes each day. Make available to them rich text of various genres. This can easily be done by using the school library, taking them to the local library, or reading things around the house. Reading informational texts, like the newspaper and magazines, help too! If we reach our goal by February, the entire school will earn a fun game day! Their individual logged reading minutes to earn Book It! certificates for a free personal pizza. So let's READ! READ! READ!
